WILL OF JOHN BURROUGHS FILED IN ULSTER CO. SURROGATE'S COURT

John Burroughs and His Children are the Principal Legatees of Real and Personal Property—Book Royalties and Life Interest in Real Estate to Dr. Barrus, Literary Assistant to Mr. Burroughs.

The last will and testament of John Burroughs was filed with surrogate Kaufman in the Ulster county surrogate's court at two o'clock this afternoon by Judge Clearwater, who for the last forty years had been Mr. Burroughs' counsel and confidential adviser.

The will is written upon seven sheets of heavy paper and closely follows Mr. Burroughs' language. It was executed on the tenth day of April, 1917, and is witnessed by Judge Clearwater and John W. Eckert, who for many years has been connected with the judge's office.

The petition for its probate is made by Julian Burroughs and Dr. Clara Barrus, the latter of whom Mr. Burroughs made his literary executor and biographer. Julian Burroughs being the sole executor as to the estate. The value of the real estate is placed at upward of $2,500 and the value of the personal property at upward of the same amount. Julian Burroughs, who is the only heir at law and next of kin of his father, his mother being dead, signed the statutory waiver and Surrogate Kaufman admitted the will to probate and issued letters testamentary to the executors named in it.

The full text of the will is as follows:

I, John Burroughs, of the Town of Esopus, in the County of Ulster, in the State of New York, do make, ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament, in and to wit: First, I disengage the expense of the erection and proper carving of the stone to my memory hereinafter described, and the expense of setting my estate be paid.

Item. In event my granddaughter, Elizabeth Burroughs, survive me, I give and bequeath to her the net income arising from the old homestead farm in Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, for and during the term of her natural life.

Item. In event my said granddaughter, Elizabeth, do not survive me, and my granddaughter, Ursula, do survive me, then and in that case I give and bequeath the net income arising from the old homestead farm in Roxbury, to my granddaughter, Ursula, for and during the term of her natural life.

Item. To my son, Julian Burroughs, subject to the bequest of the net income thereof heretofore made, I give, devise and bequeath the old homestead farm at Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, where I was born, and which is now occupied by my nephew, John C. Burroughs.

Item. To my said son, Julian Burroughs, I give and bequeath all the cattle, live stock and farming implements upon the said farm.

Item. To my said son, subject to the life estate of Dr. Clara Barrus, hereinafter mentioned, I give, devise and bequeath the lands and building known as "Slabides," in the Town of Esopus, and all my personal effects therein.

"Memorandum. Heretofore I conveyed to my son, Julian, the cottage at 'Ricey' in the Town of Esopus, which he built, together with approximately the nine acres of land upon which that cottage is located, and if to Julian it seems wise, I trust that he will devise the real estate I devise to him, to my grandson, John Burroughs."

Item. To my granddaughter, Elizabeth, daughter of my son, Julian, I give and bequeath the sum of one thousand dollars.

Item. To my granddaughter, Ursula, daughter of Julian Burroughs, I give and bequeath the sum of one thousand dollars.

Item. To my grandson, John Burroughs, son of Julian Burroughs, I bequeath the sum of one thousand dollars, to be paid to him at the discretion of his father.

Item. To my three grandchildren, Elizabeth, Ursula and John, I give and bequeath my library, to be divided among and between them at the discretion of their father.

Item. To my brother, Edna Burroughs, I give and bequeath the sum of one hundred dollars, to be paid to him annually on the first day of January of each year, for and during the term of his natural life.

Item. To my friend, Henry Ford, of Detroit, Michigan, to whom I owe the commission of the Old Homestead Farm, I give and bequeath my right sitting table at "Woodchuck Lodge."

Item. To my friend, Dr. Clara Barrus, I give and bequeath all moneys which may be due me from magazine or other publications on account of articles which I may have written, and which have been accepted by such magazines or publications, and for which I have not been paid at the time of my death.

Item. After the death of my friend, Dr. Barrus, I give and bequeath the said royalties and income to my granddaughters, Ursula Burroughs and Elizabeth Burroughs.

Item. To my friend, Dr. Barrus, I give and bequeath, for and during the term of her natural life, the use of my place, called "Slabides," in the Town of Esopus, in the County of Ulster, with enough land adjoining the same for a good sized garden, and also for and during the term of her natural life, I give and bequeath to her the use of the house, orchard and garden at Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, known as "Woodchuck Lodge," hereby giving to her the exclusive control of both places as long as she shall live or desire the same.

Item. All the devises and bequests of my real estate and lands in the County of Delaware, either heretofore or hereinafter made, are now made subject to this bequest to Dr. Barrus.

Item. It is my wish to be buried upon the old farm where I was born, at Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, and I hereby direct that my body be buried beside the rock on the hill above Woodchuck Lodge, which I have frequently spoken of as my Boyhood Rock, a few yards below the spring that supplies the house with water. I direct that my name be carved in the face of the rock if the rock should be of sufficient hardness, with the year of my birth and death. If it be not sufficiently hard for this purpose, I direct that a bronze tablet containing that inscription be set in the rock, and it is my will, and I hereby direct that this field in which the rock is situated, be held, in perpetuity for this purpose, and never be sold if the rest of the farm should be sold. It is my desire that my son and his family be buried near me, and I direct that after my death the proper steps be taken to prevent the sale of this field, and to provide for its being held inalienable and inviolate.

Item. It is my wish, that the stone which marks my last resting place be of native unworked granite, not white marble or polished granite, and I wish that my funeral expenses shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars; that my casket be free from ornament, and as plain and simple as possible.

Let me not be vain show when I am dead.

Item. After the satisfaction of all the devises and bequests hereinbefore made, and the payment of the expenses hereinbefore mentioned, I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of whatsoever kind or whosoever situate, to my son, Julian Burroughs, whom I hereby constitute my residuary legatee, or to his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. The devises and bequests to my son, Julian, are to be understood as being to his heirs or assigns, per adventure he die before the life estate herein made to life tenants do not fail in before his death.

Item. I hereby appoint my son, Julian, to be the executor of this my last Will and Testament, save only as relates to my literary property.

Item. I hereby appoint my friend, Dr. Clara Barrus, my literary executor, and my biographer, with the request that she confer freely with my son, Julian, in the matters connected with this work.

Item. I hereby revoke all former wills by me ever made.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal at the town of Esopus, in the County of Ulster, this 10th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

"EASY" CANUCKS GAVE UP $951,000

Former Premier and a Clergyman Among Those Who Bet on Another Man's Game and Lost Heavily.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Buffalo, N. Y., April 29.—The loss of $125,000 by Michael Connelly of Montreal, to wire tapping operators was but a fraction of the operations carried on by James Ryan, Charles Drucker of Cleveland, a man named Weiss, and their assistants, according to Guy B. Moore, district attorney, who is prosecuting Drucker before Justice Hinkley on a charge of stealing $75,000 from Connelly. Mr. Moore produced a list of thirteen prominent French Canadians living in and near Quebec, who he claims, had been swindled out of a total of $951,000.

Connelly seems to have been the last to be swindled. The list included a former premier of Quebec, who lost $173,000, and a clergyman who was hit for $60,000. Mr. Moore asked Drucker when he took the stand in his own defense if he was not connected with the thefts of money from the men he mentioned. Drucker denied that he was acquainted with any of the men.

Here is the list, and the given amounts they lost, as supplied by Mr. Moore:

Eugene Des Marais, $65,000; R. Tourville, $50,000; O. Martineau, $55,000; S. P. Champoux, $40,000; L. S. Duois, $25,000; A. Dionne, $85,000; the Rev. L. E. Pailleur, $60,000; Theodore Valquette, $30,000; D. Boucher, $27,000; C. Du Fresnois, $50,000; J. A. Rousseau, $66,000; Honorable S. N. Parent, former premier of Quebec, $173,000; T. Bastian, $100,000; M. Connelly, $125,000. Total, $951,000.

NEW IRISH PEACE PLAN

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, April 29.—A new Irish peace plan, embracing a scheme for extended dominion rule for Ireland, will shortly be published by the Irish moderates, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

A despatch from Dublin quoted Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, as saying in an address at Clonard: "I know for a fact that, if the people of Ireland abandon crime they can obtain a full measure of self-government with control of their taxes."

Cardinal Logue apparently referred to an offer made by Premier Lloyd George through Lord Derby, who recently visited Ireland.

WHO IS TO BLAME

For the Wrecking of Melbert's Wagon is Question.

Christian Melbert, of the street department, was at the city hall this morning to ascertain who is to pay for the damages to his wagon on Broadway on Thursday. He had driven up to the curb and was busy loading some rubbish on the wagon when a Ford car owned by Walter Snyder crashed into the forward end of the wagon, wrecking it. Snyder claimed that the reason his Ford hit the wagon was due to the fact that his car was struck by a motorcycle driven by James Lawrence of No. 163 North street. Lawrence, on the other hand, claims that he did not strike the Ford car. The question of who is to settle for the damages to Melbert's wagon will probably be up to the city judge.

Paris, April 29.—Premier Briand, accompanied by three secretaries, left at noon for London to attend the supreme council meeting. The French press is enthusiastic over Premier Lloyd George's announcement in the British parliament that the German indemnity proposals were unsatisfactory and that Great Britain would support France's demand for occupation of the Westphalian coal fields.

SECRETARY LYONS MAY RESIGN

Said To Have Been Offered a Federal Position—First Deputy Parker Resigns After Friction With His Chief.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, N. Y., April 29.—Addison B. Parker, of Watertown, first deputy secretary of state, resigned today.

The resignation of Secretary of State John J. Lyons may follow it was reported. A federal post may be offered him and it was said here today that Mr. Lyons is on his way to Washington today.

The resignation of Mr. Parker follows months of strained official relationship with Secretary of State Lyons. The head of the department has fought vigorously for retention of the automobile licensing bureau in his department and against legislative approval of the change. Mr. Parker is said to be slated for head of the automobile bureau when it is consolidated with the new tax commission.

CROWN PRINCE A BIGAMIST?

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, April 29.—That the Crown Prince Carol of Roumania committed bigamy when he married the Princess Helene, daughter of King Constantine of Greece, is the sensational charge made by the Gazette de Lausanne.

The Swiss newspaper declares, "it can prove that the heir to the Roumanian throne never annulled his marriage to his former sweet heart, Jeanne Marie Valentine Lambrino, before he married the Greek princess, and that the previous marriage was legal in every way. Furthermore, adds the newspaper, the Roumanian crown prince is the father of a baby boy, born to his first wife."

The love affair of Carol and Mlle. Lambrino, daughter of a Roumanian general, received but scant attention in the newspapers because it passed through a period when the war was engrossing public attention. By court order the Roumanian censor ruthlessly eliminated from all press despatches nearly all references to Mlle. Lambrino. One Roumanian newspaper which had hinted at some of the facts was suppressed.

The Lambrino family is one of the best known in Roumania and enjoyed the intimacy of the court. This intimacy increased when the Germans invaded Roumanian and the family sought refuge in Jassy, where the seat of government was installed.

Prince Carol visited Mlle. Lambrino nearly every evening at Jassy until his regiment was sent to the Moldavian mountains for the express purpose of breaking up the courtship. But Carol was determined to marry the general's daughter, and by a private courier sent her a letter urging her to elope with him to Odessa. He promised her that under no circumstances would he ever marry another woman and that if his father persisted in his opposition he would renounce his right to the Roumanian throne.

Mlle. Lambrino slipped away to Odessa incognito and alone. There, according to the Gazette de Lausanne, the marriage was legally celebrated in the Petrowska Cathedral. The prince wore his uniform and all his decorations. Two Russian officers were witnessed and the Roumanian consul at Odessa sent his felicitations to the newly-wedded pair.

The following day the crown prince wired the news to his father and asked permission to return to Roumania. The king consented, but in his reply reminded Carol that he had taken French leave from his regiment and would have to be punished by 75 days imprisonment. A special train took the young couple to the Roumanian frontier. There it was met by an automobile, the bride was forced to leave the train and was taken to the home of her grandmother. The crown prince continued on his way to the monastery of Orata where he served his prison term.

During this imprisonment Carol received several visits from his father, who urged him to sign a document annulling the marriage. When Carol refused plans were made for him to visit the Far East in the hope he would forget his young bride.

To block this scheme the crown prince shot himself in the leg, but some months later, after his moribund wife had given birth to a child, he was persuaded to take a trip to Japan.

The machinations of the Roumanian "court set" then won success. Upon his return from Japan, Carol apparently forgot his bride, and gave his consent to a marriage with the Greek princess. This marriage was just recently celebrated, forming a new marital alliance in the Balkans.

"But, according to the laws of all civilized countries," says the Gazette de Lausanne, "Carol is a bigamist."

PEOPLE REST IN ELWYN CASE

When court took a recess Thursday afternoon until this morning at 10 o'clock, the taking of testimony in the case of the People against Fred Elwyn, indicted for manslaughter, growing out of the death of Charles Wolven, who was struck by an auto being run by Elwyn in Woodstock October 15, 1920, was virtually finished, as defendant's attorneys expected to put on only one more witness, and then rest.

The prosecution rested when court reconvened at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon after which Mr. Cook for defense moved that the case be dismissed on the grounds that the evidence did not substantiate the charge made in the indictment, and also that culpable negligence had not been shown. Judge Fowler denied the motions and exceptions were taken.

Mr. Grogan then offered in evidence that part of the original minutes of the testimony of Percy Hill at the coroner's inquest as to what part of his body had been struck by the Elwyn car.

Mrs. Fred Elwyn testified about her husband's being at home October 15, and of his going and coming. Sherman Elwyn told of Fred Elwyn coming to his house that morning and of having trouble with the running of the Buick car, stopping and working at the engine. Dr. George L. D. Tompkins of Ocean Grove, N. J., who was stopping at Woodstock with his family on October 15, with his three children were taken around the New York water works reservoir by Elwyn in his touring car and noticed nothing wrong with the car. The Rev. J. H. Lincoln, the Methodist minister of Woodstock, testified he saw Fred Elwyn, whom he knew, sitting on a truck car near the West Shore station on the evening of October 15, and Elwyn with party in car had passed him on the road when coming to Kingston.

Richard Becker, aged 11, a bright lad who works around the Cashdollar garage at Woodstock when not going to school, testified that on the night of the accident he was in front of the garage putting water into the tank of an automobile when he heard the sound from a horn. "I said to myself," he testified, "that Fred Elwyn coming," stating he knew Elwyn's car by the horn even if he did not see it. Said he saw the car when it came in later. Looked around as he heard the horn and saw up the road the shining head lights and two men on the roadway. Then the noise came from up the road. Car was down below, just about end of railing. Did not see them struck. Saw man lying there and then came back. Saw a Ford coming up before Fred's—about three minutes. To district attorney stated did not see a lady on opposite side of the street, nor two ladies and a little girl on same side of street. Repeated to district attorney statement he had just made to questioning by Mr. Cook about knowing Elwyn's car by horn and seeing lights and the two men on the road. Told story first to Cashdollar, and was sure he did not see any ladies on the road nor a little girl.

Catherine S. Troy of New York, who was stopping at Riseley's, remembered the night of the accident, she testified. Is not personally acquainted with any of the members of the Elwyn family. Was about at Moshers' walking from the village to Riseley's when she saw a car coming up the road near the school house. Saw two men walking toward the village, they appeared as if in the center of the road mostly to the left, and when they saw the car coming they tried to get over to the right side in order to get out of the way and then they were struck, the car then going to the left. Further down the road she saw two ladies. Then she went to the boarding house and hid away. Said she testified before the coroner, but not before the grand jury. Did not remember whether she had been notified to appear before the grand jury. To district attorney she testified that she was not sure they were men but there were two dark figures. To Mr. Cook questioning she answered "One of those two dark figures was struck."

Fred Elwyn, defendant, owner of the Buick car that struck Wolven and Hill, was the last witness for the afternoon, and was on the stand for two hours or more. He told the story of coming to Kingston going to the West Shore station, after Mr. Hill with Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Orville Elwyn, of the trip back, the time as later. Looked around as he heard the shining head lights and two men on the roadway. Then the noise came from up the road. Car was down below, just about end of railing. Did not see them struck. ALLIES MAY OCCUPY BERLIN

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, April 29.—With the meeting of the Inter-allied supreme council in this city but twenty-four hours away, the intimation came from Paris today that the eventual military occupation of Berlin may be suggested when the allied representatives assemble.

The allies are in complete accord that the Berlin indemnity proposals, as made to Washington, are not acceptable in their present form and there is no indication that Berlin has taken steps to amend them.

If Germany had hoped to cause a split between Great Britain and France by her new offer, the effort was entirely unsuccessful. This was made emphatically plain by Premier Lloyd George's announcement in the house of commons that the German proposals were inadequate and unsatisfactory. Great Britain stands ready today to back up France should Marshal Foch order an immediate advance of the allied armies into the Ruhr district of Germany.

The German proposals have not been formally transmitted from Washington to the allied governments, but they are fully known both here and at Paris and the text has been under scrutiny by allied experts in this city since yesterday morning. The allied financial experts will make their report to the supreme council upon the German proposals immediately after the council meets.

It now appears unlikely that an advance of the allied armies into Germany would begin until the middle of next week, even if the supreme council sanctions this military penalty.

In refusing to give the house of commons an opportunity to discuss the question of occupying the Westphalian coal fields Premier Lloyd George pointed out that the supreme council is not likely to reach a definite decision before the elapse of several days.

It was reported that Dr. Walter Simons was preparing another note to be transmitted to Great Britain in explanation of the indemnity offer. The previous explanation, indicating that Germany asked more than 42 years in paying her reparations, was not satisfactory to British officialdom.

The door is being closed to further negotiations unless Germany takes hasty action in meeting the original indemnity demands of the allied governments, including the payment of the 12,000,000,000 gold marks which the reparations commission claims due before May 1.

Premier Briand is expected to take the stand at the supreme council meeting that the allies must exert powerful military pressure upon Germany not only to compel Germany to meet her indemnity obligations but also to convince her that she lost the war.

It is understood that the French military council has prepared a program of "progressive military action" in which the occupation of the Ruhr is the first step, and that he will urge the council to approve this program and give Marshal Foch a free hand in enforcing it. France believes that with the United States involved in the indemnity issue, the supreme moment has arrived for concerted action to convince Germany of the solidarity of the allied and associated powers.

Belgium is in complete accord with France and holds the French view that the further advance of allied troops into Germany will pay its own way without increasing the financial burden already borne by the entente governments.

Belgium and France are of the opinion that the allies are now in a position to enforce all the treaty demands upon Germany by moving allied troops into the Ruhr and perhaps taking over important German cities outside of the Ruhr.

Hope that the United States will participate actively at the supreme council meeting is dwindling although America may have an observer present to note the course of the negotiations for the information of the Washington government.

Mrs. Ingraham vanished from her home here last Saturday after telling her story. Her husband, who married her in 1917, said today that he did not believe his wife was the Arnold girl. According to word received from New York the Arnold family has investigated Mrs. Ingraham's story and pronounced it false.

$50,000,000 CORPORATION TO BUILD AIRSHIPS

First Ship To Be 752 Feet In Length And To Operate Between New York And Chicago—Later To Fly From Coast To Coast.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, April 29.—An announcement was made here today of plans to establish here the headquarters of an airship corporation, said to be the largest in the world, with a capital of $5,000,000. According to a statement by C. A. Tinker, those materially interested in the corporation include Fred S. Hardesty, consulting engineer, of Washington, Edward Schildhauer, who designed much of the electrical equipment on the Panama Canal, H. S. Jacoby, Henry Harrison, Supply and Lieut. Hanson E. Ely.

Plans for the first ship, as announced by Tinker, provide for a craft 752 feet long, 96 feet in diameter with a gas capacity of 3,355,000 cubic feet and a speed of from 80 to 100 miles an hour with a cruising radius of 10,000 miles.

The new corporation proposes to open its first commercial passenger line between New York and Chicago, later extending the line to San Francisco.

Quarters for the passengers, Tinker says, will be as luxurious as the finest hotel in the country with upholstered salons. State rooms with hammock beds and lounge and smoking rooms.

The first line is expected to be in operation in the spring of 1922, according to Tinker, and he announces that it is hoped later to establish a trans-Atlantic line.

BANDITS STEAL MAIL POUCHES

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Bayonne, N. J., April 29.—Bandits early today stole three mail pouches, one of them containing registered mail, from the baggage agent of the Central Railroad of New Jersey while he was taking them from the station across the street to the post office. Matthew Lyons, the baggage agent, was shot in the face when he attempted to resist the robbers. The amount of money in the pouches is not known.

A fire alarm, turned in about a block away just before the robbery occurred, attracted all attention away from the scene of the holdup. The police believe the robbers turned in the alarm as a ruse.

The bandits made their escape in an automobile.

Lyons was taken to a hospital in a serious condition. He was armed but was shot down before he had a chance to draw his gun.

WILL OF JOHN BURROUGHS FILED IN ULSTER CO. SURROGATE'S COURT

Julian Burroughs and His Children are the Principal Legatees of Real and Personal Property—Book Royalties and Life Interest in Real Estate to Dr. Barrus, Literary Assistant to Mr. Burroughs.

The last will and testament of John Burroughs was filed with Surrogate Kaufman in the Ulster county surrogate's court at two o'clock this afternoon by Judge Clearwater, who for the last forty years had been Mr. Burroughs's counsel and confidential adviser. The will is written upon seven sheets of heavy paper and closely follows Mr. Burroughs's language. It was executed on the tenth day of April, 1917, and is witnessed by Judge Clearwater and John W. Eckert, who for many years has been connected with the judge's office. The petition for its probate is made by Julian Burroughs and Dr. Clara Barrus, the latter of whom Mr. Burroughs made his literary executor and biographer, Julian Burroughs being the sole executor as to the estate. The value of the real estate is placed at upward of $2,500 and the value of the personal property at upward of the same amount. Julian Burroughs, who is the only heir at law and next of kin of his father, his mother being dead, signed the statutory waiver and Surrogate Kaufman admitted the will to probate and issued letters testamentary to the executors named in it. The full text of the will is as follows: I, John Burroughs, of the Town of Esopus, in the County of Ulster, in the State of New York, do make, ordain, publish and declare, this my last will and testament, in form and manner following, that is to say: First, I direct that my just debts, my funeral expenses, the expense of the erection and proper carving of the stone to my memory hereinafter described, and the expense of settling my estate be paid. Item, In event my granddaughter, Elizabeth Burroughs, survive me, I give and bequeath to her the net income arising from the old homestead farm in Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, for and during the term of her natural life. Item, In event my said granddaughter, Elizabeth, do not survive me, and my granddaughter, Ursula, do survive me, then and in that case, I give and bequeath the net income arising from the old homestead farm in Roxbury, to my granddaughter, Ursula, for and during the term of her natural life. Item, To my son, Julian Burroughs, subject to the bequest of the net income thereof heretofore made, I give, devise and bequeath the old homestead farm at Roxbury, in the County of Delaware, where I was born, and which is now occupied by my nephew, John C. Burroughs. Item, To my said son, Julian Burroughs, I give and bequeath all the cattle, live stock and farming implements upon the said farm. Item, To my said son, subject to the life estate of Dr. Clara Barrus, hereinafter mentioned, I give, devise and bequeath the lands and buildings known as "Slab-sided," in the Town of Esopus, and all my personal effects therein. Memorandum. Heretofore I conveyed to my son, Julian, the cottage at "Riverby" in the Town of Esopus, which he built, together with approximately the nine acres of land upon which that cottage is located, and if to Julian it seems wise, I trust that he will devise the real estate herein made to life tenants do not fail in before his death. Item, I hereby appoint my son, Julian, to be the executor of this my last Will and Testament, save only as relates to my literary property. Item, I hereby appoint my friend, Dr. Clara Barrus, my literary executor, and my biographer, with the request that she confer freely with my son, Julian, in the matters connected with this work. Item, I hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal at the town of Esopus, in the county of Ulster, this 10th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen. JOHN BURROUGHS. (L. S.) We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby certify that John Burroughs, the above named testator, subscribed his name to this instrument in our presence and in the presence of each of us, and he thereupon declared in our presence and hearing, and in the presence and hearing of each of us that the same was his last Will and Testament, and he then requested us and each of us to sign our names as witnesses thereto, and to the execution thereof, which we have done accordingly in the presence of the testator and of each other the day of the date of the said will. A. T. CLEARWATER, Kingston, N. Y. JOHN W. ECKERT, Kingston, New York. Plans for Memorial. When asked as to the plan of the Burroughs Memorial Association, Judge Clearwater, who is a member of the committee to formulate the plan and steps for that association, said that a meeting of the committee was held at the American Museum of Natural History this

"EASY" CANUCKS GAVE UP $951,000

Former Premier and a Clergyman Among Those Who Bet on Another Man's Game and Lost Heavily. By Telegram to The Freeman. Buffalo, N. Y., April 29.—The loss of $125,000 by Michael Connelly of Montreal, to wire tapping operators was but a fraction of the operations carried on by James Ryan, Charles Drucker of Cleveland, a man named Weiss, and their assistants, according to Guy B. Moore, district attorney, who is prosecuting Drucker before Justice Hinkley on a charge of stealing $75,000 from Connelly. Mr. Moore produced a list of thirteen prominent French Canadians living in and near Quebec, who he claims, had been swindled out of a total of $951,000. Connelly seems to have been the last to be swindled. The list included a former premier of Quebec, who lost $173,000, and a clergyman, who lost $60,000. Mr. Moore asked Drucker when he took the stand in his own defense if he was not connected with the thefts of money from the men he mentioned. Drucker denied that he was acquainted with any of the men. Here is the list and the given amounts they lost, as supplied by Mr. Moore: Eugene Des Marais, $65,000; R. Tourville, $50,000; O. Martineau, $55,000; S. P. Champoux, $40,000; L. S. Duois, $25,000; A. Dionne, $35,000; the Rev. L. E. Pailleur, $30,000; Theodore Valiquette, $30,000; D. Boucher, $27,000; C. Du Fresnois, $30,000; J. A. Rousseau, $66,000; Honorable S. N. Farent, former premier of Quebec, $173,000; T. Bastian, $100,000; M. Connelly, $125,000. Total, $951,000.

NEW IRISH PEACE PLAN

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, April 29.—A new Irish peace plan, embracing a scheme for extended dominion rule for Ireland, will shortly be published by the Irish moderates, it was learned from an authoritative source today. A despatch from Dublin quoted Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, as saying in an address at Clonfert: "I know for a fact that, if the people of Ireland abandon crime they can obtain a full measure of self-government with control of their taxes." Cardinal Logue apparently referred to an offer made by Premier Lloyd-George through Lord Derby, who recently visited Ireland. For the Wrecking of Melbert's Wagon is Question. Christian Melbert, of the street department, was at the city hall this morning to ascertain who is to pay for the damages to his wagon on Broadway on Thursday. He had driven up to the curb and was busy loading some rubbish on the wagon when a Ford car owned by Walter Snyder crashed into the forward end of the wagon, wrecking it. Snyder claimed that the reason his Ford hit the wagon was due to the fact that his car was struck by a motorcycle driven by James Lawrence of No. 163 North street. Lawrence, on the other hand, claims that he did not strike the Ford car. The question of who is to settle for the damages to Melbert's wagon will probably be up to the city judge.

Briland Leaves for London. By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, April 29.—Premier Briand, accompanied by three secretaries, left at noon for London to attend the supreme council meeting. The French press is enthusiastic over Premier Lloyd George's announcement in the British parliament that the German indemnity proposals were unsatisfactory and that Great Britain would support France's demand for occupation of the Westphalian coal fields.

Miss Owens Editor-in-Chief. Word has been received in this city that Miss Olga Van Slyke Owens, daughter of Mrs. Owen Owens of this city, now in her junior year at Vassar College, has been chosen Editor-in-Chief of the "Vassar Miscellany," the monthly publication of the college. afternoon but that owing to his imperative engagement here he was unable to attend the meeting. He said that tentatively it had been determined that the association would at once read "Slab-sided" and "Slab-sided" in order fully to protect them, and that acting for the committee he had arranged with Julian Burroughs and Dr. Barrus for a rental and sale of the property to the association in event the organization of the latter met with their approval, as undoubtedly it would. Dr. Barrus would go to "Woodchuck Lodge" in June and spend the summer there, and in the meantime "Slab-sided" and "Slab-sided" would be in the name of competent custodians who would see to it that they were not tampered with by any other hunters. A small army of whom already had made their appearance and with whom it might be necessary to deal rather severely.

SECRETARY LYONS MAY RESIGN

Said To Have Been Offered a Federal Position—First Deputy Parker Resigns After Friction With His Chief. By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, N. Y., April 29.—Addison B. Parker, of Watertown, first deputy secretary of state, resigned today. The resignation of Secretary of State John J. Lyons may follow it was reported. A federal post may be offered him and it was said here today that Mr. Lyons is on his way to Washington today. The resignation of Mr. Parker follows months of strained official relationship with Secretary of State Lyons. The head of the department has fought vigorously for retention of the automobile licensing bureau in his department and against legislative approval of the change. Mr. Parker is said to be slated for head of the automobile bureau when it is consolidated with the new tax commission.

CROWN PRINCE A BIGAMIST?

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, April 29.—That the Crown Prince Carol of Roumania committed bigamy when he married the Princess Helene, daughter of King Constantine of Greece, is the sensational charge made by the Gazette de Lausanne. The Swiss newspaper declares it can prove that the heir to the Roumanian throne never annulled his marriage to his former sweet heart, Jeanne Marie Valentine Lambrino, before he married the Greek princess, and that the previous marriage was legal in every way. Furthermore, adds the newspaper, the Roumanian crown prince is the father of a baby boy, born to his first wife. The love affair of Carol and Mlle. Lambrino, daughter of a Roumanian general, received but scant attention in the newspapers because it passed through a period when the war was engrossing public attention. By court order the Roumanian censor ruthlessly eliminated from all press dispatches nearly all references to Mlle. Lambrino. One Roumanian newspaper, which had hinted at some of the facts was suppressed. The Lambrino family is one of the best known in Roumania and enjoyed the intimacy of the court. This intimacy increased when the Germans invaded Roumania and the family sought refuge in Jassy, where the seat of government was installed. Prince Carol visited Mlle. Lambrino nearly every evening at Jassy until his regiment was sent to the Moldavian mountains for the express purpose of breaking up the courtship. But Carol was determined to marry the general's daughter, and by a private courier sent her a letter urging her to elope with him to Odessa. He promised her that under no circumstances would he ever marry another woman and that if his father persisted in his opposition he would renounce his right to the Roumanian throne. Mlle. Lambrino slipped away to Odessa incognito and alone. There, according to the Gazette de Lausanne, the marriage was legally celebrated in the Petrowska Cathedral. The prince wore his uniform and all his decorations. Two Russian officers were witnesses and the Roumanian consul at Odessa sent his felicitations to the newly-wedded pair. The following day the crown prince wired the news to his father and asked permission to return to Roumania. The king consented, but in his reply reminded Carol that he had taken French leave from his regiment and would have to be punished by 75 days imprisonment. A special train took the young couple to the Roumanian frontier. There it was met by an automobile. The bride was forced to leave the train and was taken to the home of her grandmother. The crown prince continued on his way to the monastery of Orata where he served his prison term. During this imprisonment Carol received several visits from his father, who urged him to sign a document annulling the marriage. When Carol refused plans were made for him to visit the Far East in the hope he would forget his young bride. To block this scheme the crown prince shot himself in the leg, but some months later, after his morose wife had given birth to a child, he was persuaded to take a trip to Japan. The machinations of the Roumanian "court set" then were successful. Upon his return from Japan, Carol apparently forgot his bride, and gave his consent to a marriage with the Greek princess. This marriage was just recently celebrated, forming a new nuptial alliance in the Balkans. "But, according to the laws of all civilized countries," says the Gazette de Lausanne, "Carol is a bigamist."

PEOPLE REST IN ELWYN CASE

When court took a recess Thursday afternoon until this morning at 10 o'clock, the taking of testimony in the case of the People against Fred Elwyn, indicted for manslaughter, growing out of the death of Charles Wolven, who was struck by an auto being run by Elwyn in Woodstock October 15, 1920, was virtually finished, as defendant's attorneys expected to put on only one more witness, and then rest. The prosecution rested when court reconvened at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon after which Mr. Cook for defense moved that the case be dismissed on the grounds that the evidence did not substantiate the charge made in the indictment, and also that culpable negligence had not been shown. Judge Fowler denied the motions and exceptions were taken. Mr. Grogan then offered in evidence that part of the original minutes of the testimony of Percy Hill at the coroner's inquest as to what part of his body had been struck by the Elwyn car. Mrs. Fred Elwyn testified about her husband's doing at home October 15, and of his going and coming. Sherman Elwyn told of Fred Elwyn coming to his house that morning and of having trouble with the running of the Buick car, stopping and working at the engine. Dr. George L. D. Tompkins of Ocean Grove, N. J., who was stopping at Woodstock with his family on October 15, with his three children were taken around the New York water works reservoir by Elwyn in his touring car and noticed nothing wrong with the car. The Rev. J. H. Lincoln, the Methodist minister of Woodstock, testified he saw Fred Elwyn, whom he knew, sitting on a truck car near the West Shore station on the evening of October 15, and Elwyn with party in car had passed him on the road when coming to Kingston. Richard Becker, aged 11, a bright lad who works around the Cashdollar garage at Woodstock when not going to school, testified that on the night of the accident he was in front of the garage putting water into the tank of an automobile when he heard the sound from a horn. "I said to myself," he testified, "that Fred Elwyn was coming," stating he knew Elwyn's car by the horn even if he did not see it. Said he saw the car when it came in later. Looked around as he heard the horn and saw up the road the shining head lights and two men on the roadway. Then the noise came from up the road. Car was down below, just about end of railing. Did not see them struck. Saw man lying there and then came back. Saw a Ford coming up before Fred's about three minutes. To district attorney stated did not see a lady on opposite side of the street, nor two ladies and a little girl on same side of street. Repeated to district attorney statement he had just made to questioning by Mr. Cook about knowing Elwyn's car by horn and seeing lights and the two men on the road. Told story first to Cashdollar, and was sure he did not see any ladies on the road nor a little girl. Catherine S. Troy of New York, who was stopping at Riseley's, remembered the night of the accident, she testified. Is not personally acquainted with any of the members of the Elwyn family. Was about at Mosher's walking from the village to Riseley's when she saw a car coming up the road near the school house. Saw two men walking toward the village, they appeared as if in the center of the road mostly to the left, and when they saw the car coming they tried to get over to the right side in order to get out of the way and then they were struck, the car then going to the left. Further down the road she saw two ladies. Then she went to the boarding house and hid away. Said she testified before the coroner, but not before the grand jury. Did not remember whether she had been notified to appear before the grand jury. To district attorney she testified that she was not sure they were men but there were two dark figures. To Mr. Cook questioning she answered "One of those two dark figures was struck."

Fred Elwyn, defendant, owner of the Buick car that struck Wolven and Hill, was the last witness for the afternoon, and was on the stand for two hours or more. He told the story of coming to Kingston from the West Shore station, after Mr. Hill with Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Orville Elwyn, of the trip back, the time, as to the working of the car. Elwyn testified of running on the highway when the accident happened, his car being where he considered the law allowed, at the right about at the center of the highway. Saw the two men ahead and they darted to get out of the way going toward the front of the car, the shorter man ahead, who was Hill, and Wolven close to him, and he struck them. The car was going from 24 to 26 miles an hour he having got on lower to climb the grade of the hill. Mr. Grogan then moved for a dismissal of the case on the ground of lack of evidence, which was denied. An adjournment was then taken until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Remained Ladies to Entertain. Next Tuesday evening, May 2, the Ladies Aid Society of Temple Emanuel has arranged to give an interesting entertainment and dance at 51st Hall, Fair street. There will be classic solo dances, some fine musical numbers, entertaining recitations, besides the general dancing of the evening. For the general dancing the band of the 51st Hall has been secured. This fact together with the interesting program assures a large audience.

ALLIES MAY OCCUPY BERLIN

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, April 29.—With the meeting of the inter-allied supreme council in this city last twenty-four hours away, the intimation came from Paris today that the eventual military occupation of Berlin may be suggested when the allied representatives assemble. The allies are in complete accord that the Berlin indemnity proposals, as made to Washington, are not acceptable in their present form and there is no indication that Berlin has taken steps to amend them. If Germany had hoped to cause a split between Great Britain and France by her new offer, the effort was entirely unsuccessful. This was made emphatically plain by Premier Lloyd-George's announcement in the house of commons that the German proposals were inadequate and unsatisfactory. Great Britain stands ready today to back up France should Marshal Foch order an immediate advance of the allied armies into the Ruhr district of Germany. The German proposals have not been formally transmitted from Washington to the allied governments, but they are fully known both here and at Paris and the text has been under scrutiny by allied experts in this city since yesterday morning. The allied financial experts will make their report to the supreme council upon the German proposals immediately after the council meets. It now appears unlikely that an advance of the allied armies into Germany would begin until the middle of next week even if the supreme council sanctions this military penalty. In refusing to give the house of commons an opportunity to discuss the question of occupying the Westphalian coal fields Premier Lloyd-George pointed out that the supreme council is not likely to reach a definite decision before the elapse of several days. It was reported that Dr. Walter Simons was preparing another note to be transmitted to Great Britain in explanation of the indemnity offer. The previous explanation, indicating that the Germans asked more than 42 years in making her reparations was not satisfactory to British officialdom. The door is being closed to further negotiations unless Germany takes hasty action in meeting the original indemnity demands of the allied governments, including the payment of the 12,000,000,000 gold marks which the reparations commission claims due before May 1. Premier Briand is expected to take the stand at the supreme council meeting that the allies must exert powerful military pressure upon Germany not only to compel Germany to meet her indemnity obligations but also to convince her that she lost the war. It is understood that the French military council has prepared a program of "progressive military action" in which the occupation of the Ruhr is the first step, and that he will urge the council to approve this program and give Marshal Foch a free hand in enforcing it. France believes that with the United States involved in the indemnity issue, the supreme moment has arrived for concerted action to convince Germany of the solidarity of the allied and associated powers. Belgium is in complete accord with France and holds the French view that the further advance of allied troops into Germany will pay its own way without increasing the financial burdens already borne by the entente governments. Belgium and France are of the opinion that the allies are now in a position to enforce all the treaty demands upon Germany by moving allied troops into the Ruhr and perhaps taking over important German cities outside of the Ruhr. Hope that the United States will participate actively at the supreme council meeting is dwindling although America may have an observer present to note the course of the negotiations for the information of the Washington government.

A Fake Dorothy Arnold. By Telegram to The Freeman. Middletown, Conn., April 29.—Authorities here were frankly skeptical today of the story told by Mrs. Leon A. Her husband, who married her in 1917, said today that he did not believe his wife was the Arnold girl. According to word received from New York the Arnold family has investigated Mrs. Ingraham's story and pronounced it false.

An automobile resembling the one used by the robbers was found later in the outskirts of the city. Post office inspectors arrived from New York soon after the robbery and took charge of the federal end of the investigation. They stated no estimate of the loss could be made until all the mail has been checked up.

John Berringer and family of Sandsonville attended church here on Sunday; also Mrs. Nina Christina and son, Clayton.

Mrs. John Deemer has nearly recovered from a severe cold.

The business meeting at the church on Tuesday evening was fairly attended and business of the Epworth League was transacted. A club of 18 subscribers to the Missionary News was given in by Mrs. Myers. The Sunday school was organized with the following officers: Frank N. Davis, superintendent; George L. Myers, assistant superintendent; Myron H. Myers, secretary and treasurer; Miss Eva Davis, organist. Pastor Thompson is organizing an every member canvass, which was started at the church on Tuesday evening and will be continued by the stewards, Frank Davis and George Myers.

GAS BUGGIES—Big events in little men's lives

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Seghers

You'll Never Go to Heaven, Mickie!

The KITCHEN CABINET

(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

If we looked for people's virtues
And their faults refused to see,
What a pleasant, cheerful,
Happy place this world would be.

WHAT TO EAT.

The eternal question constantly occurring daily, to be solved by twenty million housewives and cooks is what shall we have for dinner?

Fish Soup.—Cover the skin, bones of several fish (cod, haddock, flounder or lake trout) with cold water, add an onion, half a carrot, half a cupful of celery leaves, three branches of parsley, chopped and cooked in two tablespoonfuls of fat; let simmer, closely covered, for half an hour. Strain off the liquid and to a quart of the soup or broth add one-third of a cupful of minute tapioca cooked in a pint of milk until transparent; add a teaspoonful or more of salt, one-third of a teaspoonful of paprika, one cupful of cream and half a pound of fresh raw fish cut in half-inch cubes. Let cook over boiling water ten minutes and serve with olives.

Greens Stew.—Take one pound of lean beef or a medium-sized fowl, two cupfuls of tomatoes, one cupful of carrots, one cupful of chopped sweet peppers, one-half cupful of rice, one-fourth of a cupful of chopped onion, one teaspoonful of salt and one tablespoonful of fat. Cut the meat in pieces, melt the fat, add the onions, peppers, meat or chicken; brown in the fat. Put in the cooking vessel with the seasoning, rice, vegetables and one cupful of boiling water; simmer for one-half hour, then put into the cooker for three hours without the soapstones or two hours with them. With chicken and okra instead of the meat and carrots, this is a favorite southern dish.

Dried beef prepared by scalding and draining and used as the chicken with macaroni, makes another good hot dish for supper or luncheon.

Apple Gelatin.—Soak two tablespoonfuls of gelatin in one-half cupful of cold water. Cook six tart apples with half a lemon rind, or use a like amount of seasoned apple sauce. Put through a sieve, add the juice of a lemon, the softened gelatin and pour into a mold. Serve with cream, whipped or plain.

SANSONVILLE.
Sandsonville, April 28.—Raymond Davis has been painting the bungalow in the Plaza, at the Boat spring. Edna Davis was employed by Mrs. Davis painting.

We were glad to see Mrs. Frank Davis in her place at Sunday school and church on Sunday.

A GREAT TASK.

In connection with the new prohibition enforcement regulations instituted in New York city, Commissioner Enright is quoted as saying that "every policeman is now an enforcement officer" and as noting with regret the unfortunate conditions requiring "many policemen to perform other duties daily in addition to making arrests in such cases." Policemen being unable to give their whole time to prohibition enforcement, the commissioner called for more men and money. Unquestionably both are needed. Obviously it is a very great task to stop the manufacture, sale and consumption of intoxicants against the will of a vast part of the public, possibly including a full half of the population.

Perhaps it will be an even greater task to purge the world's literature of all mention of intoxicants, yet it appears that progress is being made even in the latter undertaking. For example, in a recent college production of "Twelfth Night," when the merry Sir Toby was accused by Malvolio of too much tipping, he bowed to the will of the lady teachers, or followed the new publication of an expurgated text, and answered: "Dost thou think, because thou art virtuous, there shall be no more cakes and bread?" In view of the frequent drinking Sir Toby was denounced for, the substitution of "bread" for the "ale" of the original text was a bit flat and stultifying in its effects, but of course that is a small matter from the point of view of those who would like to keep the young in ignorance of the very existence of so reprehensible a concoction as ale even in Shakespeare's far day.

DARING CADETS.

The cadets of the Pennsylvania Military College at Chester, Pa., have by formal resolution called for the return of the "old-fashioned girl." They want girls who will "act naturally, cut the jass and talk sense." They demand the banishment of "the powder-puff, the lip-stick, the eyebrow tweezers, the half-hose, the seersucker waist and the look-alike skirt." In explaining their stand they submit that "some day after we have graduated and made good in our respective lines we've got to look around for a wife, and heavens, what will we do if the girls don't reform?" And further: "It is a far cry to the Fiji Islands, but if positively necessary we can in the dim future after graduation go there in search of a wife."

It would be interesting to hear something about the reception of these demands, and particularly of this threat, in Chester. It is not improbable that the girls of that place will be in no hurry to bow to this ultimatum. It is even possible that they may scornfully take the daring cadets at their word and bid them start without delay for Fiji or Timbuctoo, or other remote regions, wherein skirts made of brass are shorter still, if there be any skirts at all. The venturesome boys of Chester are right enough in objecting to rouse and some of the other items of the catalogue of vanities, but it is evident that they do not realize the magnitude of their undertaking. The task of transforming the girl of the period into a retiring mid-Victorian miss is one from which older and more experienced male persons would see good reasons to shrink.

Doubtless the Virginia farmer who ploughed up $13,563 in gold and silver buried a hundred years ago is altogether happy in his good luck. But if he belonged to the fast-finding, never satisfied class, he could easily figure out that if his find had been bearing interest for him during all that century, instead of lying idle in the ground, he would now be several times a millionaire.

According to report, there is information in the hands of the Navy department and secret agencies of the United States Government as to the "ferocious activities" of Japan in building big and battle warships with a view to divide the size of her navy on the shortest possible time. This report may or may not have real basis, but unless the leaders of the Japanese people are crazy such preparation does not indicate any expectation of plunging in the near future into a war that can possibly be escaped. Another great war, before the ruinous effects of the last one have largely faded from the world's memory, seems almost inconceivable.

"Compulsion against an alien law-breaker who happens to have powerful friends is not to be thought of save with trembling; law has its uses; but votes are supreme," remarks the New York Times, referring to the Mayor of Cork, who came over as a stowaway many weeks ago and is still pursuing his political business in this country without interference from the authorities.

On account of the distribution of offices under his control, a President is never so strong with his party in Congress as early in his term—a fact which may partly account for the comparative ease with which the Colombian treaty was put through, although for years opposed by most of the Senators of the President's party.

It is complained that "the official German logic of the past few weeks is something to make one almost despair of the human intellect." But even the German intellect can hardly be regarded as compromised by German official utterances intended only to gain time or temporarily stave off the inevitable.

"Lady cops" and "municipal chaplains" are suggested as more appropriate than plain policeman.

What do you want to know about nature subjects? Send any questions of general interest to the Nature Note Department of this paper. Look for answers in this column.

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. When did snow shoes come into use?
2. Are there any gorillas in captivity?
3. How did the Baltimore Oriole get its name?

Answers in Tomorrow's Nature Notes.

Answers to Previous Questions.

1. What can you suggest to heal my fox-hound's feet that are sore from running?

You might try a coating of collodion, but the chances are the dog would lick it off, and perhaps be sickened. Owners of hunting dogs have sometimes greased the paw-pads in freezing weather, to prevent the skin from sticking to the snow or ice and bleeding. Esquimo dogs sometimes are provided with moccasins of leather as a protection. This is a question for a veterinarian.

2. Have snakes good eyesight?

The snake's vision is good, but limited to close work. It hunts by scenting its victim's trail. If a snake comes up by accident on a fish or a frog, without crossing its fresh trail, the snake is unlikely to notice the possible prey so long as it keeps quiet. But let the prey jump, within short range—perhaps four or five times the snake's own length—and the latter is sharp enough to see, and keep in sight its animated dinner.

3. Why were chickens' beaks made sharp and pointed, while a duck's is flat and dull?

The shape of a bird's bill is directly connected with its food habit. The chicken scratches in the earth to loosen up insect food hidden there, and with its sharp pointed bill can make a quick lunge to catch prey that might escape a clumsy instrument. The duck feeds under, or in water and needs a broad scoop. Into this scoop he takes some mud and considerable water with each mouthful, but the duck's bill has a ridged, strainer edge that allows the liquid to run off, while holding the food in.

ROTARY HEARS "SWAN SONG."

Elects Directors and Receives Very Satisfactory Financial Report.

At the Rotary luncheon this week as had been announced in the letter to members, President Seelye "sang his swan song," his term having expired with this meeting. No swan ever sang more melodiously, although when compliments began to flow one of the complimented men expressed the idea that instead of a swan song it was the song of an entirely different kind of animal.

The report of the treasurer, Dr. C. D. Carter, showed over $1,000 expended during the year, much of it for civic betterment and charity work that has been done without any sounding of trumpets. A satisfactory balance remains in the treasury.

Directors for the coming year were elected as follows: David Burgeria, Arthur G. Carr, William S. Elliott, A. W. Hoffman, William S. MacDonough, Charles R. O'Connor and Samuel M. Watts.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

NIGHT RIDERS IN NORTH ALABAMA

Trouble Is Outgrowth of Farm Tenants' Organization.

CAUSE A REIGN OF TERROR

Recalcitrants Are Dragged From Their Homes and Beaten—Fables Turned on the "Riders" When They Went to Discipline Harry McGowan—Union Has for Purpose the Fixing of the Rental Scale for Farms.

"Night riders" have caused a reign of terror in north Alabama. The trouble is the outgrowth of the organization of a "tenants' union," having for its purpose the fixing of a rental scale, which calls for one-third of the corn and one-fourth of the cotton crops to the landowner. Refusal of any tenant farmer to join the union or obey its mandates brings swift punishment. Many have been dragged from their homes and unmercifully flogged.

Conditions in Jackson county ("Big Jackson") are declared to be worse than during the dark days of reconstruction following the Civil war. So farmer leaves his home without a shotgun under his arm and probably a .45 Colt on his hip. "Daytime or dark," to quote Mayor Claude Timberlake of Stevenson, the storm center of the trouble, "the farmers go armed, and they carry their shotguns on the streets of the towns as well as on the lonely country roads."

Governor Kilby has sent 20 special officers into Jackson county, but their presence seemed to have no effect, and appeals for state militia have been turned down. The county officials and citizens have declared that unless the state takes steps a citizen army will go on the warpath with instructions to shoot to kill.

"Caught a Tartar."

While there had been sporadic outbreaks of night riding during which farmers around Scottsboro, Stevenson and Bridgeport had been roughly handled, the trouble reached a climax on February 24, when a band of armed and cowled horsemen raided the home of Harry McGowan, near Bridgeport. Tenant farmers in this section had received repeated warnings to join the union, and in anticipation of a visit from the night raiders McGowan had asked three neighbors to join him in protecting his home. On the night scheduled McGowan and his friends were on guard, and when a party of masked men appeared and demanded that McGowan come out the four farmers opened fire, which was returned by the night riders, about forty shots being exchanged. John Brown, one of the attackers, was wounded and captured, and later Jodie Beavers, another member of the band, was captured, and the two were taken to jail at Scottsboro. The attack on McGowan so aroused his neighbors and friends that the prisoners were removed to Huntsville for safekeeping. A few nights later the night riders descended on the home of Silas Blevins, a tenant farmer near Stevenson, and five others, who were taken out and beaten.

Called Off.

Following these outrages state and county officers made a raid into the Fabius section, across the Tennessee river from Stevenson, and arrested four men identified as night riders and placed them in jail at Stevenson.

The officers were assisted by six citizens, and the arrests led to one of the most sinister phases of the trouble yet developed. Enraged because the citizens had lent their aid in rounding up the band, 300 armed riders gathered at Widow's Bar, on the Tennessee river, near Stevenson, with the avowed intention of storming the town, lynching the six citizens and liberating the prisoners. Warning was sent to Stevenson and a posse of a hundred determined men was organized. The night riders thereupon called off their expedition.

Next day officers raided the Fabius section, the mountain stronghold of the night riders, and arrested thirteen, four of whom were placed in jail at once, but before the other nine could be brought in the captives were obliged to fortify themselves in a farmhouse and send for reinforcements.

There are now more than twenty men under arrest in connection with night riding activities, and the officers are continuing the raids.

While leaders of the tenants' union have repeatedly denied any connection with the night riding, and have condemned lawlessness, it is said that the members who reside in the Fabius territory refused to be convicted. This section is reported to be a center for moonshiners, who ply their trade in the fastnesses of Sand Mountain and they are bringing the tenants' union into ill repute.

Parents Awry: Four Children Burn. Willie Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews of South St. Marie, Mich., were attending a party, their four children, two to eight years old, were left unattended to death by smoke from a small fire.

Got Back Pay When Wives Died. Forty-five years of service without wages was rewarded to a beggar of $1,000 to George Joseph of White Plains, N. Y., who served Harriet L. Clark during a long illness.

Soldier's Ghostly Indecor. Joe Dunning says that whenever anybody starts to explain the Fourth Amendment "to him he comes his eyes so that nothing can do it. Not his attention, in that way he manages to send a few minutes' sleep.

DODGE

Products

Power users have become so accustomed to buying locally that "specially-built" equipment, however praised, holds no compensating advantages for the immediate delivery of pulleys, bearings, clutches, couplings, etc., built by one organization to operate as a complete unit in any plant.

And while Dodge equipment continues to serve all industrial plants as faithfully and as economically as it has since 1882, the more offer of "something new" because it is now will mean little to those who have bought Dodge products because they know them to be reliable. We carry a full line of Dodge products for immediate delivery; call on us for the service we are prepared to render.

An Irish Will.

The will of one Henry Green, dated December 23, 1879, "he recorded gave to his sister, Catherine Green, all his lands, and after her decease to either his trust, upon condition that she should give four green watercloths to four poor women in a green old age every year, such green watercloths to be used with green gowns lace and to be delivered to the poor women on December 21 so that they might be worn on Christmas day."

Curran Really Amused to Little.

In the southern portion of the lapidary parlors the remark, "May an accident befall you?" is only a friendly way of passing the time of day. But expression of the hope, "May you be carried home in your gurney," is due cause for frowns on the spot. There are many ways, the world over, for cursing your operator, but when you come down to it they are rather trivial things to say.

Wonderful Design.

The City of Belgium, when built by Nebuchadnezzar, formed one of the greatest and most magnificent the world has ever seen. Architect historians can find no words to describe the grandeur of the palace, the splendid edifices, large gardens and pleasure grounds especially the battlemented, a sort of bridge formed structure supporting earth enough to grow trees.

THE COST OF FLAT FEET

Broken arches cost you more than the actual cash outlay of trying to secure relief. There really is no amount of money one would accept if they knew they would have to endure the agonies of flat feet. By the reverse thought, there is not a reasonable amount they would not give to be rid of such troubles.

In considering the cost of flat feet, we must consider the injury to the health in general. The inability to perform one's regular tasks. The handicap of having to nurse and coddle yourself because of flat feet is tremendous. It is not a pleasant thought.

By my system of treating fallen arches you can have comfort with your feet, and you do not have to wear any appliances to get relief. Learn about this. Examination free.

AT THE THEATRES.

"Restless Sex" at Keene's—"Godless Men" at K. O. H.

The reasons for Robert W. Chambers' popularity as a writer of brilliant stories are demonstrated anew in the picture version of "The Restless Sex" which is showing at Keene's again tonight. Pretty Marion Davies is the star. She is supported by Carlyle Blackwell and Ralph Kellard. "Snooky," the Humanzee, is also featured in "The Big Show" an exceptional comedy with the famous animal comedian still better than anything he has ever before attempted. Saturday Dorothy Dalton in "The Romantic Adventuress."

Nothing is so fascinating as an adventure story of the sea. If its mood, "Godless Men" showing at the Opera House tonight and tomorrow is taken from the Saturday Evening Post story by Ben Ames Williams, entitled "Black Pawl," is more than interesting and a good story, it is one of the most powerful, blood stirring dramas ever filmed. "Fatty" Arbuckle assisted by Al St. John and Buster Keaton in "The Rough House," a riotous comedy is also featured.

Charles Ray in "Sudden Jim" is programmed at the Auditorium tonight. It is a typical Ray story and one that fits this popular star like a glove. It is action through and through and every minute one of intense enjoyment. "Young Buffalo" in a two part western, is also featured. Saturday Douglas Fairbanks in "His Picture in the Papers."

The Fleck Grand Opera Company is to give "Faust" and "Aida" Wednesday afternoon and evening, May 4, in the Kingston Opera House. There is no company upon the road today which can measure up to the artistic success of the Fleck Grand Opera Company. Its third tour of New York and the New England states last winter proved to the people that they can get real grand opera in their own cities. One of the exceptional features of this company is the chorus. Usually that is a hit or miss affair, but the work of the chorus of the Fleck Company shows careful training of good voices.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

Waist pattern 3548 and skirt pattern, 3292 are here combined. The skirt is cut in seven sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches waist measure. The waist in six sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. The width of the skirt at the foot is about 1 1/2 yard.

CLINTON THE IRVING

Hudson River Day Line's New Steamer Being Rebuilt To Resemble The Washington Irving—Day Line Season Starts In May.

This season when the Hudson River Day Line steamers begin running there will be a new steamer plying the waters of the Hudson river, but owing to her draft she will not be able to run as far north as this city. The new steamer, the DeWitt Clinton was formerly the Napatim, built for service between New York and Providence, R. I., but never used because of the loss of the president of the company (the Canada Grand Trunk Railway), Charles M. Hayes, on the Titanic.

The new steamer, which will give the Day Line a daily passenger capacity of 24,000, is being rebuilt from the main deck up to resemble the Washington Irving, with plate glass windows and open decks. The Clinton has a length of 320 feet 2 inches, and a breadth of 48 feet 1 inch.

Panel decorations will be placed in the steamer with inscriptions made from famous sayings of Governor Clinton, for which 5,000 students of the DeWitt Clinton High School in New York are submitting excerpts for prizes.

The steamer Albany of the Day Line, which spent the winter berthed at the Sunflower Dock in the Rondout creek, has been overhauled and is now receiving her annual coat of white paint.

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO SPELL BUSINESS

IT MUST HAVE A "U" and an "I" IN IT

For years and years we have consistently borne this in mind. It has been, and is, the policy of this shop to consider the interest of our patrons first. Because unless there is a "YOU" as well as an "I" in its business transactions, no house can endure.

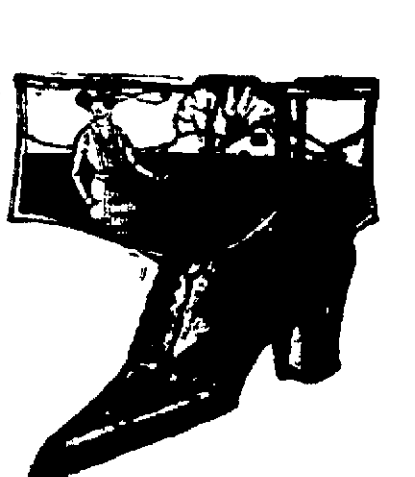

We have builded a business with a character. A patron who comes into this shop and purchases a pair of shoes, goes out with a knowledge that for every dollar spent, he has received fair and full value.

If you are not already acquainted with "Stelle" Shoes and "Stelle" methods, it will be a delight to have you drop in.

What Careful Seed Tests Show

CAREFUL seed tests at Government Experiment Stations have proved over and over again that good drills—planting the correct amount of seed at the proper depth—add from 4 to 10 bushels to the yield per acre, over broadcasting and poor drilling.

Investigations wherever good farming is practiced will show Empire Jr. Grain Drills in the forefront in correct construction and in popularity.

A drill that is backed by a history of uninterrupted success is a pretty dependable implement. To plant the seed just deep enough and yet not too deep, and cover it evenly and compactly is forward-looking business sense.

The famous Empire double-run feed is the most positive feed ever placed on a grain drill. This is only one of a number of fine features that will interest you. We will welcome an opportunity to go over them, one by one, with you, showing you just how their construction serves to do such exceptional work. Our service is also a source of pride with us and we want to explain how it is ready for your every emergency.

CONTRIBUTION TO SAVE FORESTS

Joint Action of State and Federal Governments Necessary to Stop Destruction.

FOREST FIRES ONE PROBLEM

Largest and Most Important Field for Co-operation is Fire Prevention—Cost of Protection Should be Shared by Private Owner.

Washington.—Need for public action to save the remaining forests of the United States from devastation, and to provide for timber production on lands already laid waste, was strongly urged by Col. W. B. Greeley, chief of the forest service, United States Department of Agriculture, at the hearings before the house agricultural committee on the Snell bill.

The bill authorizes and directs the secretary of agriculture, in co-operation with the various states or other suitable agencies, to recommend the requirements essential for protecting timbered and cut-over land from fire, refreshing denuded lands, and cutting and removing timber crops so that continuous production of timber will be promoted. To bring into effect these requirements, and with a view to furnishing a continuous supply of timber for the use and necessities of the public, co-operation between the federal government and the states is authorized, on such conditions as the secretary of agriculture may determine to be fair and reasonable.

Expenses Borne Jointly.

Federal expenditures under co-operative agreements with states would, under the bill, have to be at least equaled by state expenditures derived either from general taxation or from owners of forest lands under state requirements. The bill also provides for a survey of the forest resources and requirements of the country, for experiments and investigations in reforestation and methods of cutting and utilizing timber, for enlarged purchases of lands for federal administration as national forests, and for various other features of a national program of forestry.

In urging the necessity for action, Colonel Greeley pointed out that the essential problem of providing for future needs is a national one.

"New York," the colonel said, "imports nine-tenths of the lumber which she requires. Pennsylvania imports four-fifths, while a large group of middle western states import 97 per cent of their wood. The bulk of our paper comes from half a dozen states. The growing of timber on enormous areas of land adapted by nature to that purpose and scattered throughout 39 states is just as much a national necessity and just as much a matter for national action as the encouragement of agriculture or the maintenance of interstate transportation.

"The growing of timber cannot be left to private initiative alone. Under the bill the federal government will assume the technical leadership of the reforestation movement throughout the country. While in the prairie states co-operation would have to deal chiefly with tree planting, in other states it should cover technical methods of fire prevention, of disposal of debris left in logging, of cutting various types of timber so as to secure a new crop of the kind desired, and the like.

"The largest and most important field of co-operation, however, in all states containing extensive forest areas is in the prevention of forest fires. This is the first step to a continuous supply of timber. Once the vast area of cut-over land suitable for timber production is really protected from forest fires, three-quarters of our forest problem is solved.

"The cost of forest protection should be shared by the public and the private owner. But fire prevention is not an end in itself. The reforestation of timber-growing land and the actual production of timber is the real objective. In no instances should federal funds be expended unless the state carries out the requirements found necessary by the federal forest service to make timber grow."

East Is Not West—No Bobbed Hair in China

Shanghai.—The Chinese ministry of education, fearing the advance of modern ideas among young girls, has forbidden bobbed hair and bound feet. No girl student may be married without parental consent, and no girls over 14 will be permitted co-educational schools.

"Blue" Laws in Jail

Columbus, Ind.—Prisoners in the Bartholomew county jail have laid down a set of rules for their own government which very much resemble "blue laws" now being enforced in some parts of Indiana. One rule requires each prisoner to walk three miles daily in the corridors to keep himself in good physical condition. Another forbids card playing on Sunday. The use of profanity is strictly forbidden. J. Walter Smith, awaiting trial on a charge of first degree murder, is president of the club.

Cotton Stalks Will Furnish Paper.

The possibilities of cotton stalks as a source of paper have long been suspected and experiments in this direction have been made, but for one reason or another it has never proved quite practical.

The nearest approach to success has been made recently, and it is announced that there is a plant at Greenwood, Mass., where 50 tons of paper are made every day from three times that amount of stalk.

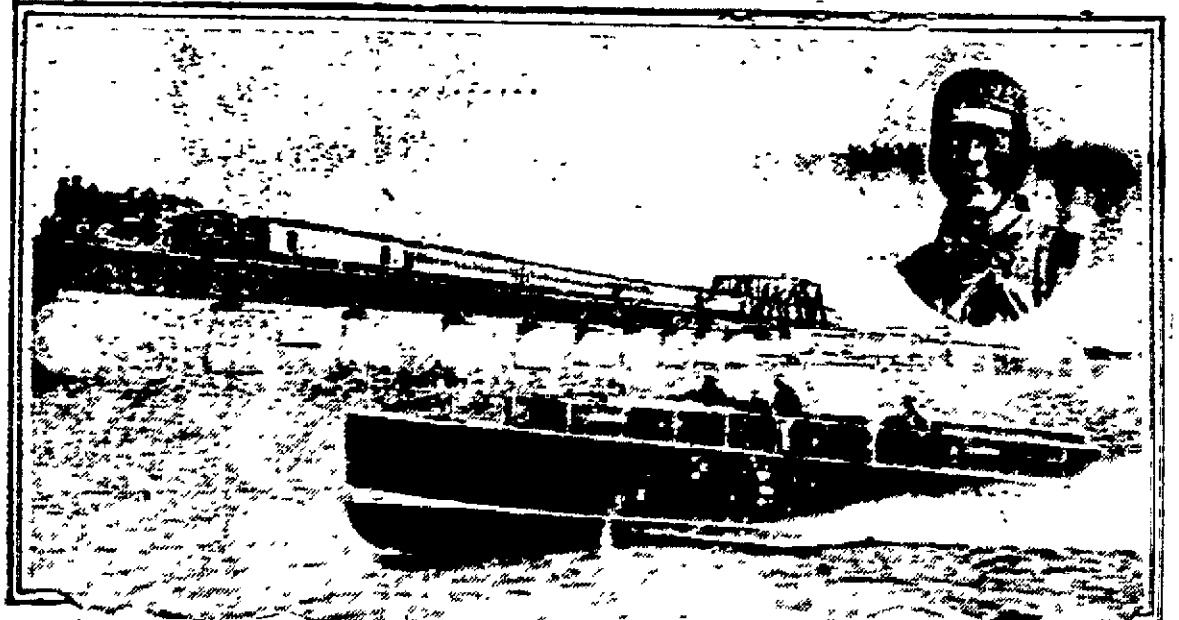

Certain thin tubular fiber in the plant will make excellent cellulose for durable papers. It is strong and flexible. If a quarter of the annual supply of the cotton stalks of the South were put to this use each year there would be no need of a paper shortage in this country.

Restoration for Aborigines.

The commonwealth of Australia has taken steps for the preservation of the aborigines of that country and has at present a tract of public lands in the northern territories as reservation for the tribes. It includes the Mann and Peterson ranges and practically the whole of Lake Amadeus. The government of South and Western Australia have set aside adjoining areas for the purpose of this reservation.

Teamwork

The man at the top should know his men all down the line. Meeting them inspires them and inspires him. They do their work for the knowledge that they are under the close observation of their superior, and he does his work better for familiarizing himself with details and keeping in touch with all the latest requirements.—Washington Star.

Country Life Is Sweet

The best and most hopeful feature in any people is undoubtedly the instinct that leads them to the country to take rest there, and not that which sends them flocking to the town and its distractions. The lighter the snow the more it drifts; and the more the snow the people the more they are drawn to the country.—John Burroughs.

Ancestry Probably Persian

In the mountains of southern Arabia a swarm of tremendous crabs and georpiloes, lives a mysterious tribe of people who are entirely different from the Arabs. They are far lighter in color, and live in different surroundings. They are said to be a relic of the Persian army which invaded the country nearly 1,000 years ago.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XLIII.—WYOMING

IT IS to Wyoming that falls the honor of being the first state to grant equal political rights to women. In fact when congress, in 1869, created the Territory of Wyoming from parts of Dakota, Utah and Idaho, a constitution was adopted which gave women the right to vote.

There were rumors of early Spanish explorations in Wyoming but they seem unfounded by fact. Probably the first white men to visit this part of the country were Scur de la Verendee, and his sons who came through this region on their way to the California gold fields a string of forts were erected along the Oregon Trail to protect the travelers from attacks by the hostile Sioux Indians.

Through Wyoming went not only the Oregon Trail, which was opened up by Lieutenant Fremont and his guide, Kit Carson, in 1842, but also the Salt Lake Trail. Along these routes many travelers crossed Wyoming, but few stopped and settled there as the country was the most arid of all our states. The discovery of gold in 1897 led to the founding of South Pass City and in the same year Cheyenne was laid out by the Union Pacific Railroad company.

Wyoming became the forty-fourth state of the Union in 1890 and is eighth in size with an area of 97,914 square miles. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

NECKTIE HALTED A ROMANCE

Lovers Who Had Been Apart for Forty Years Made Up When Man Wore Woman's Present.

Forty years ago John Emmons and Charity Timmons of Bishopville, Del., were twenty years old and sweethearts. With her own hands Miss Timmons made a necktie as a gift for her young gallant. The evening of the day he received it Emmons put it on. He didn't like the colors and replaced it.

As usual, he visited Miss Timmons that evening, according to a Selbyville (Del.) dispatch to the Philadelphia Ledger. It was a nice summer night. The moon revealed that he was not wearing Love's token and Miss Timmons demanded the reason.

"It's too loud," replied the youth. "Do you mean you will never wear it? Then you don't love me," sobbed the girl, and she went into the house. That apparently was the end of the romance. Emmons went to Portland, Ore., and prepared. As the owner of a big department store in the far Northwestern city, he returned to Bishopville last Christmas for a visit. It was inevitable that he should meet his former sweetheart in the village. Soon each learned that the old love would not die; that each had considered that day. Of course, Timmons bought a tie as that started all the trouble. Then, when he could find, then, when he without flinching, she coyly murmured, "yes." And so they were married the other evening.

PREPARING TURF FOR FUEL

New Method, Said to Have Originated in Russia, May Result in Relieving Shortage.

A new method of drying turf to relieve the serious fuel shortage in Finland is in operation in various countries. The new method was invented by engineers under orders from the Russian government to find a more saving method of preparing turf. The great central power station near Moscow, the process being made known in Finland through an escaping engineer. The fundamental principle of the process is quite simple. The raw turf in the swamp, by a powerful jet of water under a pressure of 20 atmospheres, is freed from all old roots and changed to thin rods. This is pumped out on a drying field and spread in layers. When sufficiently dry it is cut into bricks of uniform size by means of a tractor. The turf pump is constructed like an ordinary water turbine, is reversible with aid of electric motor, is equipped with a cutting apparatus which completes the work of the water jet, and can be raised or lowered as the surface of the mud varies. The entire equipment is mounted on a car which can be pushed forward or backward on rails along the line of work.—Scientific American.

PRINTING TRADES THREATEN STRIKE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, April 29.—"It's a battle royal—that is all I can say," said Secretary of Labor Davis this afternoon, following a conference with representatives of the printing unions who are threatening a strike. The secretary conferred with the representatives of the unions and the employers today and indicated that little progress toward an agreement to avert a strike had been made. He was still hopeful, however, and announced that he would confer with both parties again this afternoon.

Among the men participating in the conference are George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Union; President of the International Typographical Union; James J. Freely, president of the Stereotypers' Union; Walter E. Reddick, president of the Bookbinders' Union; H. N. Kellogg of the Boston Newspaper Publishers Association; John Eymon, president of the United Typothetes; J. R. McFarland, B. T. Gardner and a group of publishers. The old wage agreement expires on May 1, and a strike is threatened in the printing and allied industries unless the controversy is adjusted.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The funeral services of Minnie Howland, wife of George L. Kinkade, were held at the family residence, No. 59 Green street, at 11 o'clock this morning. The Rev. Dr. P. N. Chase, a former pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. T. H. Baragwanath, pastor of St. James' M. E. Church, of which deceased was a member. It was attended only by relatives and a few near friends. The burial was in Wiltwyck cemetery.

Ananias Cameron, a former resident died suddenly in Ellenville Wednesday afternoon while on his way to attend the funeral of the former comrade, L. F. Hall. Mr. Cameron was walking up Canal street when just opposite the Ellsworth home he complained that his arm hurt and that he would have to drop out. Very shortly afterward he died, death undoubtedly being due to a heart attack, he having been a sufferer from heart trouble for a number of years. Funeral services will be held from the home of his sister, Mrs. Layman Nickason, on Warren street, Ellenville, at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, with interment in Fantinehill cemetery. The Rev. H. P. Hobson will conduct the service. Mr. Cameron was born in Ellenville, April 10, 1848, the son of Ananias Cameron and his wife, Letitia Krom. Several years ago Mr. Cameron removed to Middletown where he made his home with his two daughters, Miss Olive, employed in the law office of Ivan Gardner, and Miss Gertrude, with the Fashion Shop. He also leaves two sons, William in Washington and Richard of Brooklyn. Mrs. Lyman Nickason of Ellenville is a sister and George Hayes of Middletown is a half brother. Mr. Cameron was twice married, his second wife having died about four years ago. Mr. Cameron's war record shows that he enlisted February 9, 1864, at Fort Lyons, Va., in Co. B, 15th Heavy Artillery, New York Volunteers, and served through the war. He saw action in several of the bloodiest battles of the war and was wounded August 22, 1864, at Weldon Railroad, and was confined in the hospital at City Point, Va.

DIED.

In loving memory of James Van Demark, who departed this life, April 29, 1911:

Just ten years ago today you left us, To the beautiful better land. We have all been very lonely since you went away.

But some time we'll understand, We miss your cheerful and loving smile, And your presence everywhere. Our family circle is broken now. For we have still the vacant chair.

But your memory we will always cherish, Till we meet in the better land. And I know we will always be happy. For there is no parting there.

RHOADES DID NOT SHOOT HIS SISTER

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Lewistown, Pa., April 29.—Reed Rhoades, former convict, who for the past 24 hours has been hunted like an animal in the mountains near here, did not shoot his sister, Erma Rhoades, who was found by autoists Wednesday night, dying from bullet wounds through her neck.

Police have changed their entire theory today and Rhoades is now believed to have stuck to his "pal" and tried to help her escape after she had been shot in an attempt to steal an automobile.

Last night an examination of the girl's body revealed 29 buck shot in her back. Together with the three in her neck, they were the cause of her death. It is known the boy, a former soldier, did not have a shot gun. The body was found sixty yards from a pool of blood where the girl evidently had been hit. Marks on the road showed the unconscious body had been dragged that distance. The pool of blood was only a short distance from the garage of a farmer, John W. Hoffman. Several police started this morning to Hoffman's garage in an effort to learn of the shooting from him.

It is known that Rhoades wanted an automobile. It is believed he was fearless enough to make an effort to steal one. Hoffman had an automobile. In that connection police today are endeavoring to solve the crime.

They seem satisfied that the boy and girl tried to break into either Hoffman's or some other garage in an effort to get a car. The bullet wounds in the girl's back are believed to be mute testimony that the girl was shot while trying to flee from some one she feared would shoot. But the police are certain that man was not her brother.

The police think Rhoades stayed by his sister after she had been shot and endeavored to give her what little aid he could, and abandoned everything he had, swung her bleeding form to his shoulders and tried to escape from the spot.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, April 29.—Independent steel stocks were the feature of the trading on the stock market this morning. Generally changes were mixed and trading was not active. U. S. Steel opened at 83 1/2. Bethlehem Steel "B" opened 1/2 higher at 58 1/2 on the declaration of the regular dividend. Crucible Steel advanced 1 1/2 to 83. The action of the Bethlehem steel directors in maintaining the regular dividend on the common stocks of that corporation was one of the chief factors in directing price movements at the beginning of business today. Bethlehem Steel "B" was in brisk demand, moving up after the opening a point, to above 60, and U. S. Steel made a gain of 1/2 to 83 1/2. Baldwin Locomotive was the strongest of the group, advancing 2 points to 92. U. S. Rubber advanced 1 1/2 to 76 1/2. Atlantic Gulf was an exception to this strength, dropping 1/2 to 38. American Woolen continued in demand, making a gain of 1 point to 80 1/2. Mexican Petroleum advanced 1 1/2 to 150 1/2. Studebaker after reacting to 90 1/2 moved up to 91 1/2. Crucible sold at 84, a gain of over two points.

The strength that developed in the steel industrials at the opening became more pronounced toward the end of the first hour and there was a general broadening of the buying movement causing advances all through the list. Railway equipment stocks became the most active feature, Baldwin selling at 92 1/2, a gain of 2 1/2 points. American Locomotive was active, advancing two points to 90. Bethlehem Steel "B" continued its upward movement, selling at 60 1/2, a gain of 1 1/2. Republic Steel advanced nearly 2 points to 65 1/2 and U. S. Steel was firm around the price established in the early trading.

After the drives were made at Mexican Petroleum and Atlantic Gulf in the early afternoon, bullish activities developed in the rubber stocks, Kelly Springfield tire becoming the most prominent, advancing to 50 1/2, a gain of over 6 points for the day. Goodrich Rubber was also bought on a large scale and was up over two points to 39 1/2.

MAY SETTLE MARINE SCALE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, April 29.—Slight progress toward a settlement of the marine labor troubles was made here today in the general conference between the marine workers and the ship owners and Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board. The situation, while more hopeful, was still in such a state that there was no immediate prospect of a settlement.

Andrew Furuseth, speaking for the seamen's union, laid down four demands as follows:

American citizens to be given preference in employment; union representatives to be given the right to come on deck and to confer with the ship owners; three deck watches to be maintained; the 15 per cent wage reduction not to apply to subsistence or to overtime.

W. A. Thompson, speaking for the ship owners, and Admiral Benson stated that they would agree to the demands for preference for Americans and that the wage reductions should not apply to overtime or subsistence, but stated that the other two demands were a matter of working regulations.

Furuseth insisted upon acceptance of all demands in a written agreement, and continued debate upon this issue, stating that if this was finally rejected he would offer another proposition which would be the final proposal of the seamen.

The Marine Engineers' Association, thus far, has failed to indicate any willingness to compromise on the matter of wage reductions.

JEWELERSGERMANY MUST PAY THE BILLBy Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, April 29.—The cost of occupying the Ruhr if Germany refuses to satisfy the allied reparation demands, must be borne by Germany and the bill will be a tremendous addition to the sum Germany already owes.

This was made plain today by General De Castelnau president of the army commission of the chamber of deputies, who organized the mobilization of the French armies at the outbreak of the world war.

"The occupation will require more troops than an ordinary military invasion," explained General De Castelnau. "If we were simply making an advance into enemy country the task would be comparatively easier. We would carry along enough artillery to wipe out any resistance."

"But in occupying the Ruhr we will only execute a police operation. We do not intend to harm any one nor destroy any property. It follows that we must employ many more troops than would be necessary for a real invasion, in order to guard against guerrilla warfare or surprise attack by small groups of discontented Germans."

"That is not all. Even though only two classes of 1918 and 1919 with about 350,000 men are mobilized, it will involve a serious economic disadvantage for these young soldiers whose families will be deprived of their earnings. The government should grant them extra pay and better rations than French soldiers receive in time of war. There must also be provisions for the care of their families while they are away and all this should be charged against Germany."

Tagging All The Bases.

Ralph Miller and Lee Meadows of the Phillies hit homers with the bases full, giving Philadelphia an overwhelming victory at the expense of the Braves. Cy Williams added a long homer to the Phillies total.

The Indians set a season's record for hits and runs against Detroit with 23 hits and 13 runs. The pitcher for the winners made a home run with the bases full.

Dutch Ruether's pitching was too much for the Giants and though the Dodgers made but four hits they managed to make it four straight ever New York. George Kelly added a double and a triple to his season's total.

The pitching of Joe Bush and Elmer Myers of the Red Sox was too strong for the Athletics, though Frank Walker contributed a home run to Philadelphia's total.

A triple steal by Rice, Lewis and Harris featured the Yankee-Senator game. The Yanks broke a losing streak with Piercy pitching.

Joffre Offered Command.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, April 29.—Marshal Joffre, who was commander in chief of the French army after the outbreak of the world war, has been offered the command of the allied army of occupation that may take over the Ruhr district. It was reported here this afternoon. Marshal Joffre is now in London conferring with the military experts who will report to the supreme council.

First and exclusive photographs of the Island of Yap, which is now the subject of controversy between the United States, Japan and the allied governments. Naval reports describe the Island of Yap as a low-lying bit of land in the Caroline Islands, a little west of Guam, an American possession in the Pacific. It is surrounded by reefs, extending not farther than a mile and a half off shore, and has two principal harbors, Rull and Tomil, easily navigated by ships in ordinary weather. There are good anchorages and boat landings. The harbor improvements have been built by the natives. There are no fortifications on the island, and the only armed force there is a small native guard. The natives are peaceful and take readily to trade, though during the German occupation. The chief exports of Yap are copra and beche-de-mer, which are paid for in either goods or stone money. This stone is a very peculiar feature of Yap's currency system. It consists of limestone from six to twelve feet in diameter and is brought entirely from the Pelow Islands in native canoes. The shells of giant oysters are also used as currency. Yap boasts of a number of good roads but no draught animals or artificial means of transportation. A canal about fifteen feet wide, traverses the northern part of the island for about half a mile, affording a passage for the small boats and canoes of the natives. The illustration shows the cooling station at the harbor of Tomil, on the Isle of Yap.

Europe Short of Cotton.

There is a scarcity of bales in Europe with the result that the demand for second-hand bales is unprecedented. In the pre-war days the empty "hubbly" bottle was a drug on the market. The rag-and-bone merchant would give small sums for whisky, port, sherry, burgundy and other bottles, but the champagne bottle was on the black list. Today it is the king of the empty bottle trade.
